Dear All

Welcome to the Spring / Summer edition of our ANSA Newsletter.

The excellent feedback we received from our recent conference has, as always, generated new ideas and plans are already under way for our special 10th anniversary conference in April 2011.

Best wishes to you all.

Belinda Dring, President

Note from the Editor

Welcome to this edition of the ANSA newsletter. The ANSA executive committee appreciate how difficult it has become to be allowed the time or obtain funding to attend study days and conferences. Therefore it is important that we use this newsletter to inform you of any new developments in anaemia management but we also would like you to share your ideas and practices with each other. If you have anything that you feel may be of interest please contact me either through the ANSA secretariat or email me at Susan.Pickard@btuh.nhs.uk.

9th ANSA ANNUAL CONFERENCE
 Hilton Leeds City Hotel, Leeds, 18th and 19th March 2010

This year's annual conference once again received positive feedback from its delegates.

We were treated to some outstanding presentations around the theme of "Anaemia Management – An age old problem."

Thursday afternoon began with a work shop sponsored by Vifor Pharma UK Ltd. The workshop focused on new uses of IV Iron and drew a lot of discussion. The AGM then followed where Cathy Johnson stepped down after 3 years as ANSA president. There followed a TIME presentation which introduced the successful modules which are now available via BRS website. Dinner was held with magicians providing table entertainment. Digby Lund was presented with a lifetime membership to ANSA in recognition of all the support he has given the association over the years.

Friday morning began with presentations on anaemia in the elderly.

Dr Kathryn Griffith discussed how to identify anaemia and who to refer to: renal or care of the elderly?

Dr Clare Beeson talked about managing anaemia in the elderly.

Dr Ivor Cavill gave a well animated presentation on anaemia in an aging population.

Other presentations on Myelodysplasia and Uraemic bleeding by Sharon Benton and Sue Pickard and a debate on 'TREAT' and its implications on our practice led by Lesley Bennett.

Friday afternoon then enabled delegates to see how we can break down barriers to a world-class service thanks to Jane Macdonald (BRS President) followed by a motivational speech from Pat Cantrill to leave us on a high before the meeting was closed.

More details on the above presentations can be found on the ANSA website.

Plans are underway for next year to be even better! April, 2011 (date to be confirmed).

AGM Leeds Thursday, 18th March 2010

Cathy Johnson welcomed the delegates to the Conference and the AGM, and introduced the ANSA Executive Committee.

She reminded the delegates that ANSA is their Association and the AGM is their opportunity to ask questions and to suggest any ideas or improvements. She then reviewed the ANSA year covering the following key points:

e-Learning project

The project has 2 modules in a learning programme using evidence-based case studies.

Module 1 and 2 available at: www.uknursing.net/www.doctors.net.uk or the link on the ANSA website.

Project continues to be well used, especially by Drs, but nurse numbers are increasing since it's availability via nursingtimes.net.

EDTNA Collaboration

Lesley Bennett confirmed that ANSA continued to have an excellent relationship with EDTNA and that there was a good opportunity to feed into EDTNA, and other collaborative initiatives would follow. We now have members from Australia and New Zealand.

BRS Affiliation

ANSA is an active affiliate of the BRS and had a seat on the BRS Council.

World Kidney Day

ANSA was represented by Lesley Bennett and Susan Pickard at the WKD House of Commons Reception.

Newsletter

Sue Pickard welcomed any Newsletter contributions from ANSA members. These should be sent to her via the ANSA secretariat.

Treasurer's Report

Kate Taylor presented the 2009 Annual Accounts which were accepted by the membership.

ANSA wished to thank their Corporate Members:

Amgen, Fresenius, Ortho-Biotech, Roche Pharmaceuticals Ltd, Syner-Med, Ratiopharm and Vifor Pharma Ltd, Vision for the Future

In closing, Belinda reiterated the ANSA vision and asked for member comments and assistance in taking ANSA forward.

Cathy Johnson and Carol Anderson were both thanked for all their help over the last 4 years.
